

Treasury Chambers,
Great George Street,
S.W.1.

22nd October, 1942.

Dear Harrod,

I must apologise for not writing to you before about arrangements for a talk. The unexpected arrival of Mr. Morgenthau rather threw our timetable out of gear. Are you coming up next week? We shall be busy on Monday and Tuesday, but after that would try to fix a time for a talk with you, though it might have to be at the late end of the day.

Yours sincerely,

R. F. Harrod, Esq.,
Christ Church,
Oxford.