KING'S COLLEGE.

CAMBRIDGE.

Dear Mr Harrod

You will excuse my delay. All the letters about and from you came in my one real annual holiday, when I am out of correspondence. We should be glad to make what arrangements we can for you here. Would you wish to join the High Table? to assume B.A. status? If possible I will arrange for a room in College, but as we doubt you know most of them are already disposed of. I might be able to get some Fellow out in regular residence to lend you his. Failing that there is just a chance of a family good undergraduate set falling vacant.

We had better dispose with furniture of administration etc.

If I cannot arrange for a room in College I will assign you as good a room on our lodging list - as I can under you prefer to him - for yourself -

Yours very truly

JH Clapham
