Dear Roy,

In view of our conversation the other day, I write to tell you at once, though it is, of course, at present confidential, that the Committee appointed to deal with the editorial arrangements of the Journal look like adopting some other arrangement than the one I discussed with you, and which I proposed to them. Nothing is settled yet. But I felt I ought to tell you that things are shaping, I am sorry to say, in a different direction.

Yours ever,

TMK
