My dear Harrod,

Thank you very much for your further letter of the 8th.

Although you have already started inquiring about Pinsent I hasten to say that I have found out in the meantime that Mrs. Addian is his sister. I am in fact expecting from her abstracts from a diary David Pinsent kept in the years when he was on intimate terms with Wittgenstein.

I don't think my first draft will be ready before I have had an opportunity to see W.'s sisters in Austria this summer. I shall certainly send you a copy when it is ready.

Once more with many thanks,

sincerely yours,

F. A. Hayek
