

New College,
Oxford.

Oct. 8. 1923

FORD

30 PM

OCT 23

OXFORD

12. 30 PM

9 OCT 23

My dear Harold,

It looks as if my economic we appoint is not likely to be able to come this term at any rate. Would you be able to help us at all for a term, a fortnight a year? if so,
how many hours could you spare?
In any case, I wonder whether you'd look after Dartling? He has a post at the 'Gill' before he is 1924, where he will have to teach economics, & is shifting his further subject from Politics to Currency

Roy Harold Erlang Hotel
Baywater
London
W. 2

Just
to say

Christ Church House,
Iffley Road, Oxford.

8. W

My dear Harold,

Indemity in needed for the young body - teaching the
any outside teaching.
Let the simple case of Fartling read out 1 (the)
be taken to them.

On the ground of this

(a) I know you'd be in

Wanted to work on teaching hours for the
with the first term on to read. (later on) two: with the

FORD

OXFORD

30 PM

12.30 PM

OCT 23

9 OCT 23

Banking

Wm. B. Joseph

Roy Harold E
Erlang Hotel
Bayswater
London
W. 2

Joseph
Erlang

(6). be sent on 7. A.
historian, - eg. Paul III
next term. (not this).

Let

(5). if you must 7. outside
has to (say) 4, 1
d's (the) and have in done: that, and 7, it might be some later on - to 7. so say no weakness
are case for a 3rd free historian, the Harold 1905.
118 rather 7. make it 2
has.

(4). I can understand the
to expect work may be release.

Paul, still, the Martine + I can see 7. 7. 7. 7.