 The Saturday
 from Dennis R.

My dear Ray,

I'm much looking forward to my week-end at Oxford. I can't get away before 1.0 on Saturday, but that will enable me to arrive at 5.55 GWR, & I'll come straight to the House. I should like to leave by the 3.12 on Monday, if you can leave with me so long. I never at some point visit my mother, though (as I stayed with her a fortnight ago) she will not expect to see much of me. Perhaps Monday morning would be best, as no doubt you will be properly busy: & I could either stay to lunch with her or return to you, as ~~she~~ suits best.
 I.e. if you would really rather like to get shot of me - Monday early, I can very happily pass the time with her: but if there happens to be something you particularly want to do at lunch that day, she wouldn't be hurt at my leaving her.

Roger Rogers was here a few weeks ago, & spoke of, without to see me in Balliol, which I should like. He said he would get in touch with you in due course about it, - I don't know if he has.

Of course I am at your disposal, but please don't let me be a burden, as I know the present week of term is a ghastly time to have to cope with visitors! So remember I shall be very happy sitting with a book.

Miss Tappan has come to my aid against you, - fairly persuasively in some points, I think, - less persuasively in others. To appear in the
