Dear Ray,

Thanks for your note. I am off to Belgium on Thursday for about 10 days.
I rather expect I shall be here for the first 10 days of April: perhaps if you are in London then you could run up for a night or two: but I hope for your sake you may be going further afield.

I haven't yet read Life T. as you are not in its field from: I read a draft some months ago, & while I thought it was right in some parts and wrong in others.

I'll let you know, when I get back from Belgium, where I am, in case you are within hail. Yours Dorothy.
