Dear Roy,

Hoppy has passed on to me your letter about Leith-Ross's note. He thinks it might be better if you were to put off writing your reply to Leithers, however much required and deserved, until you have seen my revised draft, which aims - whether successfully or not remains to be seen - at a harmonious compromise. I have now finished this document, and you shall have a copy as soon as it has been stencilled.

Yours, JM Keynes
